COULD & COULD NOT

- I could swim when I was young.
- I couldn't solve the puzzle.
- She could sing beautifully as a child.
- He couldn't drive last year.
- We could finish the work on time.
- They couldn't attend the meeting.
- You could learn a lot from this book.
- I couldn't find my phone.
- She could speak French fluently.
- He couldn't understand the instructions.
- I could help you yesterday.
- We couldn't ignore the warning.
- They could win the game.
- You couldn't enter the building.
- She could cook very well.
- He couldn't lift the box.
- I could see the stars clearly.
- We couldn't trust him.
- They could solve the problem.
- You couldn't leave early.
- I could hear a noise outside.
- She couldn't come to the party.
- He could fix the machine.
- We couldn't miss the chance.
- They could travel abroad.
- You couldn't change the decision.
- I could explain it better.
- She couldn't solve the equation.
- He could run very fast.
- We couldn't delay the project.
- They could join us later.
- You couldn't use your phone.
- I could complete my homework quickly.
- She couldn't believe the news.
- He could manage the team well.
- We couldn't agree on the plan.
- They could help each other.
- You couldn't break the rules.
- I could draw a picture.
- She couldn't lift the chair.
- He could teach science.
- We couldn't forget that moment.
- They could reach the top.
- You couldn't skip your class.
- I could speak confidently.
- She couldn't find her keys.
- He could repair the car.

BARI ENGLISH ACADEMY

CAN & CANNOT

- I can swim very well.
- I can't solve this problem.
- She can sing beautifully.
- He can't drive a car.
- We can finish this today.
- They can't come to the party.
- You can learn anything with practice.
- I can't find my keys.
- She can speak three languages.
- He can't understand the lesson.
- I can help you with that.
- We can't ignore this issue.
- They can win the match.
- You can't enter this room.
- She can cook delicious meals.
- He can't lift that heavy box.
- I can see the mountains.
- We can't trust him completely.
- They can solve the puzzle.
- You can't leave early today.
- I can hear music outside.
- She can't attend the meeting.
- He can fix the computer.
- We can't wait any longer.
- They can improve their skills.
- You can't park here.
- I can ride a bicycle.
- You can't ignore your health.
- I can understand your feelings.
- She can't open the jar.
- He can play the guitar.
- We can't miss this opportunity.
- They can travel next week.
- You can't change the past.
- I can explain it clearly.
- She can't solve the equation.
- He can run very fast.
- We can't delay the project.
- They can join us later.
- You can't use your phone here.
- I can finish my homework quickly.
- She can't believe the news.
- He can manage the team.
- We can't agree on the plan.
- They can help each other.
- You can't break the rules.
- I can draw a picture.
- She can't lift the table.
- He can teach mathematics.
- We can't forget this day.
- They can reach the top.
- You can't skip your classes.
- I can speak confidently.
- She can't find her bag.
- He can repair the bike.

BARI ENGLISH ACADEMY