HAS TO / HAVE TO

- He has to take care of his health.
- They have to renew their passports.
- I have to book train tickets in advance.
- You have to take an umbrella; it may rain.
- We have to be polite to everyone.
- She has to clean her room every weekend.
- He has to fix his bike.
- They have to register for the competition.
- I have to send an email to my boss.
- You have to be careful while driving.
- We have to support our friends.
- She has to attend her yoga class.
- He has to call the plumber.
- They have to pay the rent.
- I have to take notes during the lecture.
- You have to reach school on time.
- We have to wake up early tomorrow.
- He has to follow the diet plan.
- They have to take turns in doing chores.
- I have to visit my grandparents.
- You have to save money for emergencies.
- We have to clean the car.
- She has to submit her project today.
- He has to check his emails regularly.
- They have to repair the broken chair.
- I have to remind my friend about the meeting.
- You have to feed the dog.
- We have to stay positive.
- She has to iron her clothes.
- He has to read the newspaper daily.
- They have to book hotel rooms in advance.
- I have to fill out the form.
- You have to listen carefully in class.
- We have to be kind to animals.
- She has to wait for her turn.
- He has to collect the parcel from the post office.
- They have to study hard for exams.

BARI ENGLISH ACADEMY

HAS TO / HAVE TO (Negative sentences)

- She doesn't have to wake up at 5 AM on weekends.
- He doesn't have to complete the project today.
- They don't have to attend the seminar if they don't want to.
- I don't have to take a cab; I can walk.
- You don't have to bring food; we already have enough.
- We don't have to go shopping today.
- She doesn't have to participate in the competition.
- He doesn't have to call the electrician right now.
- They don't have to wait in the queue; they have priority access.
- I don't have to answer every email immediately.
- You don't have to visit the doctor unless you feel unwell.
- We don't have to book tickets in advance.
- She doesn't have to submit the essay before Monday.
- He doesn't have to attend the party if he doesn't want to.
- You don't have to shout.
- They don't have to bring their ID cards every time.
- I don't have to take the test again.
- You don't have to call me every day.
- We don't have to pay extra for delivery.
- She doesn't have to cook dinner tonight.
- He doesn't have to worry about the presentation.
- They don't have to complete the assignment today.
- I don't have to explain everything in detail.
- You don't have to wear formal clothes to the event.
- We don't have to clean the garden today.
- She doesn't have to attend the online session.
- He doesn't have to report to the office this week.
- They don't have to wait for the bus; they can take a cab.
- I don't have to prepare for any exam right now.
- You don't have to bring your laptop to work.

BARI ENGLISH ACADEMY

HAD TO

- I had to wake up early for work.
- She had to cancel her trip due to illness.
- We had to finish the project on time.
- He had to apologize for his mistake.
- They had to leave the party early.
- I had to study all night for the exam.
- She had to cook dinner by herself.
- We had to take a different route home.
- He had to work overtime last night.
- They had to sell their car.
- I had to call my friend for help.
- She had to wait for hours at the station.
- We had to clean the house before guests arrived.
- He had to fix the broken chair.
- They had to postpone the meeting.
- I had to wear a uniform at school.
- She had to take care of her younger brother.
- She had to explain everything clearly.
- We had to practice every day to win.
- He had to walk miles to reach home.
- They had to accept the decision.
- I had to change my plans suddenly.
- She had to answer all the questions.
- We had to follow strict rules.
- He had to save money for the future.
- They had to work as a team.
- I had to skip lunch yesterday.
- She had to prepare for the interview.
- We had to repair the roof after the storm.
- He had to support his family.
- They had to learn from their mistakes.
- I had to stay calm in a tough situation.
- She had to complete the assignment alone.
- We had to organize the event.

BARI ENGLISH ACADEMY